

Michael Ray Lee Integrity Scholarship for High School Student Athletes

Michael (April 28, 1992 - December 22, 2020) was educated in Greeley's WCSD #6 and the Colorado School of Mines in Petroleum Engineering. Along with his commitment to a strenuous academic schedule, Mike pursued his passion for golf at both the high school and collegiate levels, becoming a distinguished amateur golfer, earning many titles and recognitions. Mike lived his life under the ideals of dedication to a strong work ethic in both academics and athletics; being positive, friendly, and welcoming to others; and most importantly, the personal quality of integrity. This quality is the focus for the scholarship that bears his name.

Please visit michaelraylee.com to learn more about Mike; his commitments, his interests, his heart. You will see that Mike had a zest for life and had many more contributions to make. This scholarship is one of the ways the Lee family carries on Michael's legacy.
